

Edison Academics Syllabus

History of Social Media Course Description

The History of Social Media is an elective course that will explore the history, rise, growth, and effects of different social media platforms in the 21st century. Topics and sites discussed in class include personal social media sites, dating websites, business development sites, and the economics of social media.

Grading

10% Class Participation - Weekly	30% Homework - 2x per Week
10% Attendance - Daily	15% Quizzes - 3 per Quarter
10% Bell Ringers - Daily	30% Test - 3 per Quarter 5 Week Assessment - 2 per Quarter

Academic Expectations

- Students will attend class regularly
- Students will come to class prepared with their tools: pens, pencils, paper
- Students will stay on-task during class giving 100% effort
- Students will do homework assignments on time, prepare for tests
- Students will return all textbooks at the completion of the course

Absence Responsibility Policy

- Student responsibility for excused absence: inform teacher and the Administrative office of the reason for the absence and the length of time for the absence.
- Students with 9 unexcused absences in a semester will be in danger of failing the course

Electronic Devices Policy

- Students will have cell phones off during class, no earbuds, no headphones
- Students will have tablets and laptops out only when required for classwork by teacher
- Students may re-charge devices at teacher-approved locations in classroom